

Transition support for parents/carers

We have outlined below, sources of information and support for parents, available from a range of agencies, during their young person's transition years (age 14 – 25).

London Borough of Bexley

Teams will work in a way that supports young people to have a smooth transition into adult life. The Children with Disabilities Team can work with young people up to the age of 18.

If you have a social worker in this team, they will talk to you about how plans will be made at the age of 18, and what to expect when assessments are completed under adult criteria for receiving care and support.

The Preparing for Adulthood Team will work with people over 18 and in partnership will devise a social care pathway. They will generally connect with families before they are 18, as they move through the transition process.

There are a number of people involved with the Transition Review Meeting – please see below how they work together through the process:

- SEN Case Officer – co-ordinates the statutory needs assessment and works with educational settings to ensure that the necessary resources are in place to meet a child/young person's needs. SEN Case Officer's become involved if a change of placement is requested or if amendments need to be made to the EHCP.
 - SENCo – co-ordinates the support a child/young person receives in school including any request for assessments and review of EHCPs. They will be responsible for organising the Transition Review meeting and inviting all those who may need to attend. They will chair the Transition Review meeting.
 - Class Teacher – should attend the Transition Review meeting. They will have provided a report in advance of the meeting outlining your child/young person's current performance levels. They will have worked with your child/young person to enable them to contribute to the meeting around their needs and aspirations.
 - Head Teacher – whilst the Head Teacher retains overall responsibility for your child/young person's progress and support. They usually delegate responsibility for the Transition Review to the SENCo.
 - Transition Team Representative – will often attend, to understand the needs of young people coming through the transition process. This enables the adult teams to adequately prepare for the future.
 - See 'Who is involved with the Transition Review Meeting' in section 8 for other roles.

What happens if my child goes to school outside Bexley Borough?

The school will plan the transition review in the same way as Bexley and should invite SEN, health and transition workers to the meeting and ask them, where relevant, to provide information to support the review.

Your SEN Case Officer will liaise with the educational setting and depending on the child's needs and the transition arrangements already in place they may attend the Transition Review meeting.

If your child has health services at school outside Bexley, contact local health services to let them know your son or daughter is coming back to Bexley and seek advice on follow up.

The specialist careers officer will be able to provide information on local college and supported work choices. Out of borough settings may have their own careers advice service and you should ask them about the careers advice services they offer.

A copy of the transition plan will be requested by your case officer, to ensure that key actions and responsibilities for Bexley are carried out.
