

Making a positive return to school after home learning

Support for parents and carers of children with SEN

Are you a parent or carer of a child with additional needs?

Do you or your child have worries about going back to school?

Are your child's additional needs making it hard for them to make the transition back to school?

Are you having difficulties in getting your child back to school or are they finding it hard to settle back in?

If you have a child with additional needs who is struggling emotionally or academically during this time of transition back to school, we are here to help. We are Bexley Council's Early Intervention and Specialist Advice Service who normally provide advice and support to schools about children with additional needs. We can also provide advice, guidance and signposting for you as parents and carers, via phone or email, on how to support your children as they return and settle back into school.

Feel free to get in touch for a chat:

Telephone : 0203 045 3692

Email: parentsensupport@bexley.gov.uk

We are providing this service between 1 – 5pm on Mondays from 14th September to 19 October 2020.

Please do email at a time that is convenient to you and we will respond at our earliest opportunity.

If you would prefer a telephone call back please include your telephone number. Early Intervention and Specialist Advice Service

If you would like the information in this document in a different format, please call 020 8303 7777 and ask for Communications/Graphics. The reference to quote is: 607705/9.2020