

Bexley Voice are hosting a briefing on the topic of managing sex and relationships with their young person

This briefing is aimed at parents and carers of a child/young person aged 10-18 with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND).

Date: Thursday 14th March 2019

Time: Briefing ~ 6.30 - 8.30pm
(Registration & Refreshments ~ 6.20pm)

Venue: Danson Children's Centre, Brampton Road, Bexleyheath DA7 4EZ

Information from our guest speaker:

Karen Upton (retired GP with an interest in safeguarding and expert by experience in autism) will be talking to parents and carers about managing the topic of sex and relationships with their young person, including advice on:

- ◆ Friendships
- ◆ Relationships
- ◆ Puberty
- ◆ Abuse and the law
- ◆ and a little bit about safeguarding, which parents need to be aware of as well as their young person.

To reserve your place:

Complete the on-line booking form on the Bexley Voice website:
www.bexleyvoice.org.uk/events

For more information:

Email: rachel.bexleyvoice@hotmail.co.uk

Charity Number: 1142306